

Master of Arts in Teaching English Language Learners

- Supportive Cohort Learning Community
- Program completion in only 14 Months
- Convenient weekend and summer schedule
- Licensure Endorsement: English Language Learners (ELL) PreK-12.
- Tuition discounts for Teachers. Grants and Financial Aid available for Eligible Participants
- Now Enrolling for February 26th, 2009

Full-time teachers enrolling in The Master of Arts in Teaching English Language Learners (including educational assistants & full-time substitute teachers) will receive the Lipscomb University Tuition Grant for a 26% reduction in tuition. Other significant Grants provided by the U.S. Department of Education, are available specifically for candidates seeking licensure through Lipscomb's Masters program in ELL. Generous financial aid is also available for candidates in the Master of Arts in Teaching English Language Learners Program.

Learn how to earn the Master of Arts in Teaching English Language Learners in just 14 months at Lipscomb University. Schedule a personal appointment to discuss all of the details by contacting:

Steve Hull
Director of Enrollment and Outreach, MALT/MASE/MATELL
Lipscomb University
Nashville, Tennessee
615-966-1811
steve.hull@lipscomb.edu